Visit Deer Park, Texas

Your home base for exploring the Houston/ Bay Area region

Welcome to Deer Park!

Located just 19 miles east of Houston via Loop 610 and State Highway 225, Deer Park is your home base for exploring the Houston/Bay Area region. Founded on land already rich in Texas history, our community is proud of its standing as "The Birthplace of Texas," the site where General Sam Houston and Santa Anna drafted the initial treaty papers securing Texas' independence from Mexico in 1836. We capitalize on our proximity to the incredible San Jacinto Battleground State Historic Site, home to the San Jacinto Monument, to bring international, state and local history together.

In addition to our historical assets, the City of Deer Park offers outdoor activities and venues including the Battleground Golf Course, year-round special events that are perfect for the whole family to attend, shopping and dining and much more. We're home to one of the only remaining dinner theaters in the state of Texas, and the Art Park Players' four annual productions are not to be missed.

When you consider our proximity to other fun attractions including the Kemah Boardwalk, the sand and shores of Galveston and other local cities with antiques, sightseeing and more, you can see Deer Park is full of appeal.

Read on to see how the many unique parts of Deer Park come together to create the perfect destination for a vacation, road trip or new home.

San Jacinto Battleground State Historic Site

3525 Independence Parkway South - 281-479-2431

Officially opened in 1907 as the first state park in Texas, the San Jacinto Battleground State Historic Site proudly preserves a monumental chapter in state, national and international history.

The 1,200-acre site commemorates the Battle of San Jacinto, preserving the battleground on which Texan troops under General Sam Houston achieved the independence of Texas by defeating a Mexican Army led by General Lopez de Santa Anna on April 21, 1836. Today, the site includes the Battleground, the San Jacinto Monument, and the Battleship TEXAS.

San Jacinto Monument and Museum

One Monument Circle - 281-479-2421

The San Jacinto Monument was dedicated on April 21, 1939 to the "Heroes of the Battle of San Jacinto and all others who contributed to the independence of Texas." The monument includes a 570-foot shaft topped by a 34-foot star symbolizing the Lone Star Republic. Listed as the tallest stone column memorial structure in the world - even taller than the Washington Monument - the building was recognized by the American Society of Civil Engineers with the designation as a State and National Historic Structure.

The interior of the structure is operated by the San Jacinto Museum of History, a private, non-profit organization with collections spanning over 400 years of early Texas history.

San Jacinto Day Festival

Free admission. Event held in April - details online.

Each year, over 20,000 visitors travel to the San Jacinto Monument and Museum for the San Jacinto Day Festival and Battle Re-Enactment, which includes family entertainment, live history demonstrations, a children's area and Texas vendors. In the late afternoon, the largest battle reenactment in the state celebrates the 1836 Battle of San Jacinto.

As official co-sponsors for the San Jacinto Day Festival, the City of Deer Park is represented at the annual event by representatives from the Historical Committee, Tourism Committee, Parks and Recreation Department and the Deer Park Public Library! When you come to the event, stop by and learn about major events offered in our City!

Historical cabinets - Learn about the Deer Park region

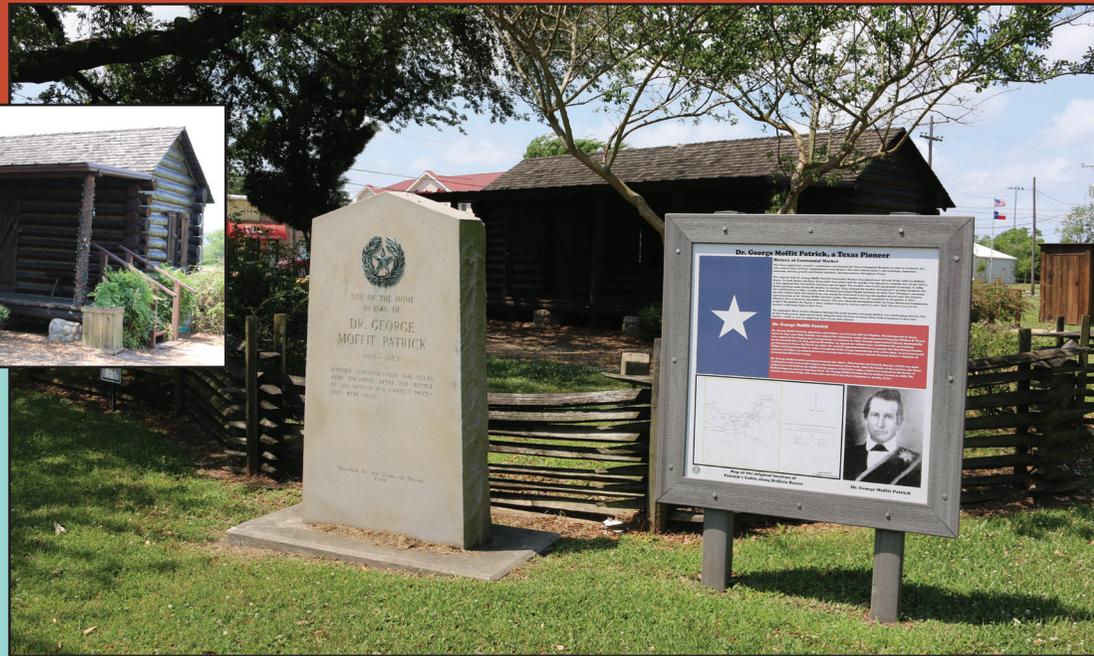

The City of Deer Park maintains twenty-two historical cabinets, with photos, deeds, books and surveys from the Deer Park region. Learn more about how our history began as well as the histories of some of our partner entities including Shell Deer Park and the Deer Park Independent School District. The cabinets are located in four facilities including City Hall, the Community Center, the Deer Park Public Library, and our Visitors Center.

Texas History

Heritage Park

1410 Center Street
www.deerparktx.gov

Following the battle of San Jacinto, General Sam Houston, David Burnet and the Texas Cabinet took the Mexican General to a nearby cabin to draft the initial treaty documents securing Texas' independence from Mexico. This cabin, the home of Dr. George Moffit Patrick, was located in Deer Park on Buffalo Bayou, and a historical representation of the structure stands in our Heritage Park. Because of these significant events, Deer Park holds the distinction of being the true "Birthplace of Texas."

In partnership with Dow Chemical and the Texas Historical Commission, the Historical Committee oversaw the movement of a Centennial Marker originally placed at the home of George Moffit Patrick from its location at Dow Chemical (formerly Rohm and Haas) to Heritage Park.

Early Deer Park Graves

Around 1928, surveyors came across a headstone for siblings Mary Jackson and William Wilson. Around 1976, Shell contacted the Harris County Historical Commission and the City of Deer Park to make plans to move the gravesite. The Commission gave Shell permission to move the gravesite and any remains from the site at Shell to Dow Park. A small cement casket of earth from the graves and the headstone were moved on March 7, 1977. It is Deer Park's oldest artifact and some historians believe it is the oldest marked grave in Harris County. As of December 2017, the City was granted a Texas Historical Subject Marker for "Early Settlers in Deer Park." The marker, as well as the headstone, will be located in central Dow Park (610 E. San Augustine).

Pratt Truss Bridge - Battleground Golf Course

1600 Georgia Avenue

The Pratt Truss Bridge originally opened in March of 1891 during a period of extensive growth in Coryell County. The bridge spanned the Leon River approximately six miles to the Southeast for its first sixty or so years. Then, the bridge was moved to County Road 322. After about thirty additional years of service, the bridge was extracted. In May of 1995, a 130-ton crane lifted the bridge from its location on County Road 322.

Because of the bridge's historical significance, transportation officials wanted to find a new home for the bridge. In November of 1993, the city put an $8.25 million bond issue before its voters to authorize construction of the golf course. Voters approved the measure in a referendum at a nearly three-to-one ratio. Tom Knickerbocker of the Centurion Consulting Group suggested adding the bridge to his vision for Deer Park's Battleground Golf Course. A grant approved for $108,084.58 from the Statewide Transportation Efficiency Act of 1991 funded the relocation of the bridge. The bridge traveled three counties and 350 miles in a day and a half, taking detours to remain on the roads that would permit its movement.

On September 23, 1997 the Texas Historical Subject Marker was approved for the Pratt Truss Bridge, and the marker was installed in 1998. The commission stated that this 1891 bridge that once spanned the Leon River in Coryell County was significant to Texas history and should be documented. The relocation of the structure saved the last surviving Texas bridge built by the Clinton Bridge Company of Iowa, and prevented it from joining a growing list of exterminated bridges.

Did you know the City is home to several historical markers?

These markers - issued by the Texas Historical Commission - signify the importance of historical assets within the community. One marker, located in Heritage Park, is titled "Deer Park" and details the City's 100th birthday.

Visit the City's website at www.deerparktx.gov to learn more!

The Pratt Truss Bridge from Coryell County was brought to the Battleground Golf Course thanks to the combined efforts of the Texas Department of Transportation, Texas Historical Commission, City of Deer Park and grant funding. The City of Deer Park agreed to maintain the bridge and its features that give it its historical significance with TxDot and the Texas Historical Commission. The construction of the Battleground Golf Course was created with three goals in mind - honor the Battle of San Jacinto, celebrate the City's 100th birthday and boost the City's economy through tourism to enhance the overall quality of life. The Pratt Truss Bridge and the Battleground Golf Course opened to the public together on April 21, 1996, which was exactly 160 years after the Battle of San Jacinto.

The Battleground Golf Course provides its visitors with an understanding of the region's significant history. The golf course's clubhouse, which resembles mission-style architecture, was constructed out of stone native to Texas and Mexico. Each of the 18 holes were named in honor of an individual or event involved with the fight for Texas Independence.
